PATRON SAINT'S DAY

Observed Generally in Clarksburg and Shamrock Very Much in Evidence.

Shamrock was very much in evidence Thursday. Most every one was "wearin' o' the green," and there were some very artistic and flashy designs. As the day implies it was in commemoration of the Patron Saint of Ireland that such a large number of people wore the colors so emblematic of the traditional story of the great deeds of the primitive saint.
The observance of the day has done much to bring all nationalities into closer touch in America and it has become a national custom with us to wear the green that day and otherwise celebrate the day. That it is fitting that it should continue to be observed, though there be more or less remoteness and mist as to the true St. Patrick, none will deny since it promotes good fellowship and brings the people closer together.

COMMITTEE WILL MEET.

Notice, unsigned, has been given that there will be a meeting of the Harrison county Democratic executive committee in this city to-morrow, at an hour not named, for the purpose of setting a date for the holding of a primary election to elect candidates to the congressional delegate and State delegate conventions to be held at Charleston on April 20, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the national convention in St. Louis.

GAS IGNITED AND EXPLODED.

While searching for a leak a night or so ago in the Salem-Natural Gas Company's main, near Sedalia, George Cor-met with an accident caused by an explosion. The escaping gas ignited from a lantern Cork carried in hunting for the leak and an explosion followed. He was considerably injured but not fatally.
The town of Salem was without gas for the night on account of the explosion.

LEAP YEAR BALL AT SALEM.

Special Correspondence.
Salem, March 17.—The social event of the season has been arranged for tonight. Many young ladies of the town have arranged for a leap year ball in Davison's hall and issued invitations to the young men. Being St. Patrick's Day the color worn on the occasion will be green and shamrock and will be much in evidence.

THOROUGHbred CATTLE WILL BE PURCHASED

Edward G. Davison, of Weston, will leave this city to-night for Kentucky to buy a lot of thorough-bred cattle, with which he will stock his farm in Lewis county. He has one of the most magnificent farms in that county and will build a $29,000 residence on it.

VERY AGED LADY DEAD.

One of the oldest women in the State has passed away at Salem. She was Mrs. Sarah Bonnell and died March 12.
The deceased was born March 7, 1803, and was therefore 100 years and 5 days old. She was the mother of Charles B.
Bonnell, of Wilsonburg. The interment took place at the Seventh Day Baptist cemetery.

THREE PLAIN DRUNKS.

Three plain drunks were lined up in front of Mayor Crile in police court on Thursday morning. All acknowledged the charge against them and fines were assessed. One paid a three dollar fine and was released. The other two were broke and had to go to jail for five days each.

COUNTY JUDGES

Are Still in Session But They Did Only Small Amount of Business on Thursday.

The county court was in session again Thursday with all the members present, except Samuel S. Faris, who is detained at his home on account of the serious illness of his father.

F. G. Nizer qualified as a notary public.
Salvator Nickotelle qualified as administrator of the estate of Pasqual Nickotelle, deceased, giving bond of $100.

Maggie Moran resigned the guardianship of Earl Hardman, Arthur Hardman and G. W. Swiger was appointed in her stead. She was given instructions to settle the guardianship.

ABOVE PAR

Is the Stock of the Traders National Bank According to Belief of Bankers' Committee.

The committee of bankers, composed of Edward G. Davison, of Weston; H. H.
Moss, of Parkersburg, and L. Mallonee, of Grafton, and representing the stockholders of the Traders National Bank, whose doors were closed by the direction of the Comptroller of the Currency and which is now in the hands of a receiver, representing the United States government, adjourned their sessions Thursday morning until March 30, at which time they will meet the stockholders of the bank in special meeting, which has been duly called.

The committee conferred Wednesday evening and night with Cleveland people on a proposition to buy the stock of the bank. They also had a conference with Washington, Pa., people on a similar proposition, but nothing definite was done.

It is understood that the committee recommends that local capital and local people constitute the reorganization of the bank and earnestly suggests that efforts be made with that end in view.
This it is stated will be done.

The report of the committee is that it is the belief that the stock is above par and that the conditions of the bank are not as bad as at first reported.

MOUND CITY DISH WASHERS.

The old man who has these machines to sell—we all know him—is compelled to buy them before he can sell them himself; and he has two of them on hand at 407 Sixth street—one large one and one small one. The evangelist took up this work to help keep him going while engaged in the missionary work.
The people who have known him so long remember him as the man who wrote, "What Shall I Do To Be Saved?" Some quack medicine man came along and wrote under this scripture, "Take Bonnet's Capital." Randall, with the same grit as when running a saloon in Martinsburg some forty years ago, when showing his wild oats, lettered under the patent medicine sign still these words, "Perhaps to Meet His God."

MORE RECRUITS ACCEPTED.

Sergeant Hawthorne, of the local recruiting station in the federal building, second floor, accepted three applicants Thursday for enlistment in the United States army. They are William Lee, of Glen Falls; W. T. Munsey, of Mt. Clare, and John Baxter, of Weston, who has seen service. They, with four others, who have been accepted and reported, will be sent to Columbus, Ohio, next Monday to be assigned to the infantry.

CAR TRACKS BLOCKADED.

The street cars were held up a half hour or such a matter on East Main street this afternoon by the Home Furnishing Company wagon, which stalled there. The Clarksburg Transfer Company's team happened to come along and helped the other team out.

DISCHARGED FROM HOSPITAL.

Richard Bell, of Austin, W. Va., who has been a patient at the Kessler hospital for some time past undergoing treatment for a serious stomach trouble was discharged from that institution on Wednesday, as cured. He returned to his home Thursday morning.

CELEBRATED ST. PATRICK'S DAY AT CATHOLIC CHURCH

Sarfield Division, No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, attended the services at the Catholic church Thursday morning at nine o'clock in a body. There was special music for the occasion and Mrs.
Anson D. Parr presided at the organ and sang. Rev. John A. Reynolds preached an appropriate sermon. The services were in commemoration of St. Patrick, the patron saint.

BROADDUS OPENS SPRING TERM.

The spring term at Broadbus Institute began Thursday morning after a vacation of two weeks. The faculty was all on hand and many students answered the roll call. The term begins under most favorable circumstances and there are flattering prospects for a large attendance and much good work. The scholastic year there will close the first week in June. The commencement exercises will be made the most brilliant in the history of the institution, if present plans are fully consummated.

Charles D. Elliott, of Wilsonburg, spent the day here.
